

National Buckskin Society Inc.

SHOW REGULATIONS: -#Updated September 2016

(Registration No A0006358W
ABN 49 716 775 039)

These Regulations are made by the authority of the Statement of Purpose of the National Buckskin Society Inc.

In these Regulations the male gender shall include the female gender and vice versa.

Reference to the Committee, the Society, or the NBS Inc. shall be reference to the NATIONAL BUCKSKIN SOCIETY INCORPORATED and the duly elected committee of management.

Shows organised or arranged by the NBS Inc. shall endeavour to ensure members may participate in as many classes as possible, however it shall be at the absolute discretion of the judge or ring steward, in the event of clashing classes, to either hold the class for a SHORT time or to continue with the judging.

These Regulations must be followed by exhibitors, judges, stewards and members & volunteers.

Exhibitors shall at all times, abide by these regulations and all other rules and regulations as set by the Committee of the NBS and as added to or altered by the Committee of the NBS from time to time.

Exhibitor: the exhibitor is the registered owner/lessee of the horse, not necessarily the handler or rider. Horses MUST be shown in the registered/lessee name not the handler/rider name.

Any person found to be in breach of these regulations shall be subject to such penalty as defined by the committee of the Society.

A. JUDGES:

1. A Judge shall judge all classes disregarding colour and size of exhibits, but taking into account Breed characteristic.
2. A Judge may order from the ring any horse that is unruly, or one whose actions may endanger any persons or other horses.
3. A Judge shall not adjudicate in any class in which a member of his immediate family, or any of his or their horses is competing. If a Judge feels that he will be compromised as to this situation he is to inform his ring steward immediately, who will then inform the ring master of the problem.
4. A Judge shall not, during the period of a show at which he is judging, be a house guest of a person who is exhibiting/competing at the show, without the express request or consent of the NBS committee.
5. A Judge may not judge any exhibit that: [within a period of six [6] calendar months prior to the date of judging]
 - a. He or his family have sold.
