

INSURANCE INFORMATION

ADDITIONAL MEMBER INSURANCE COVER:

As per our agreement with our Insurance providers, The National Buckskin Society will cover One member only on any one Society membership. All additional people (this includes memberships held in joint names, family members, handlers and riders) that the member wishes to have covered for insurance purposes must be listed separately and a fee of $5.00 per person is applicable and must be paid when renewing a membership or joining as a new member.

The person who is nominated as the member (not additional member) must, if applicable, be the same person whose name appears as the registered owner/lessee of any registered buckskin.
